Reflections on Risk Volume II

By Divya Yadav

Tautegory Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 358 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.8in. Volume II in the Reflections on Risk series features 26 research notes by 14 different authors, all current or former graduate students at the University of Washington's Information School. Each research note is focused on a different contemporary risk issue. The volume is edited by Emily Oxenford, former ASA research associate. She has placed the research notes within the following chapters: Critical Infrastructure (Chapter 1); Privacy (Chapter 2); Finance (Chapter 3); Data Security (Chapter 4); Physical Risks (Chapter 5); Policies and Governance (Chapter 6). From early reviews: This second volume of Annie Searle's Reflections on Risk continues her tradition of bringing critical issues facing our society to the forefront through a careful combination of education, collaboration and inspiration. The essays in this book are a result of her mentorship and guidance of students in the University of Washington Master of Science in Information Management program at the University of Washington Information School, and provide a window into the varied and complex issues facing individuals and organizations as we move further into the Information Age. The background and insights provided in this work should be required reading...

Reviews

Very good eBook and valuable one. This is for anyone who states that there was not a worth reading. You will not truly feel monotony at any time of your own time (that's what catalogs are for concerning if you question me).
