

Shipmates (Paperback)

By Jim Staack

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a novel about serving in the US Navy in the Vietnam Era as recounted through the eyes of three servicemen, all serving on the USS Neptune, a minesweeper tender or repair ship. The sailors, Starkey, Brodsky and Whitney are friends aboard the same ship. Frustrated by the special treatment afforded the officers on board, the three plot to give the officers a taste of the discomfort shared by the enlisted men. This was a time when many citizens felt it was more important to disclose military tactics than it was to win a war, especially when the war was conducted by a different political party. Because of politics, our traditional values were torn and discarded. Disclosure supplanted pride, integrity and honor. Petty outrage trumped valor. Protest was popularized. Traitors became heroes. Our service men and women were vilified, even those who had lost friends on the battlefield or had themselves been wounded or given their lives. With that state of the nation as a backdrop, Starkey, Brodsky and Whitney deal with the day to day drudgery of...
