Noah is an angel whose job relies on collecting human souls who aren't ready to leave their vessels. To his brothers, Michael and Gabriel, he's just another rookie, earning his arch angel wings. When Noah catches an Earthbound demon in his form stealing a soul, he's sent back to Heaven to plead his case. But no one believes him. Banished from Heaven for a crime he didn't commit, Noah is given one year on Earth to find the demon responsible for his framing. If he fails to do so, he will be dragged to Hell for eternity. On his first day on Earth, he meets Fern Holliday who helps him get back on his feet. She's reluctant to get close to him, but agrees to help Noah find the demon. By following signs Michael sends him, Noah and Fern travel the world in search of the demon. They grow closer every day until Fern is struck down by a mystery illness. Noah is at loss at what to do as her condition worsens. Before the year is up and he returns to Heaven empty-handed, the demon agrees to be taken back, only if Noah takes Fern's soul to Lucifer. Will he follow the strict rules of Heaven, or succumb to his heart?.
