

Producers Versus Capitalists: Constitutional Conflict in Antebellum America

By Freyer, Tony A.

University Press of Virginia, 1994. Hard Cover. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. 1st Edition. New hardcover book with dust jacket, never been read. From the publisher: "This study focuses on how antebellum constitutional law and principles responded to and shaped producers' appeals for protection from capitalists' predations. Placing the constitutional system's operation in the context of the nation's profound ideological and social conflicts, Tony A. Freyer suggests that the normative force of constitutional values often enabled pro-producer, protectionist policies to be enacted, despite an emerging corporate and mercantile capitalist consensus." Current list price: $45.00.
