The good old woman boueved them, but she could scarcely tear herself out of the arms of her sons; she trembled for the dangers they were about to run 5 and by an involuntary foresight she ran after Selico, when he had disappeared from her presence, . The two young brothers, of whom it was difficult to say which was the most to be pitied, arrived in a few days-at the city of Sabi. The murders had ceased Peace began to raise her head and the king of the Dahomais, quiet possessor of the. states of luida, wished to encourage an intercourse with Europeans, and had given them an establishment within his-walls. Many English and French merchants were admitted to feis court, to whom he sold his numerous prisoners, and he divided among, his soldiers-the...
