Neuware - Diploma Thesis from the year 2000 in the subject Business economics - Business Management, Corporate Governance, grade: 2,0, Klagenfurt University (Wirtschaftswissenschaften und Informatik), language: English, abstract: Inhaltsangabe:Abstract: This thesis handles a topic which is of high importance for all companies doing business internationally . But nevertheless there are still less companies who make this a subject of everydaylife. What I am talking about is culture, cultural differences and cross cultural management. What makes it so difficult for people of different cultures to communicate, to work together, to live side by side in harmony without misunderstanding It is our culture and the difference between our cultures often mentioned not at all. But at the latest if there appear problems you will recognize the differences in understanding, thinking, behavior, This thesis should make a small contribution to get a better understanding that culture is something we must accept and that we can not neglect if we are doing business internationally. To broaden the background knowledge of the reader chapter 2 gives a short overview with demographical and economical data of the last thirty years of both countries. In chapter 3 I continue with the main topic the cultural dimension (theoretical background followed by some models of identifying different cultures, the cultural profiles of both countries, the Singaporean culture and its characteristics, behavior and problems as expatriate in Singapore, do s and don ts. Chapter 4 shows then a concrete example. It starts with the theoretical background concerning Business Process Reengineering followed by the detailed description of the projects in Singapore and Austria on which I have collaborated for altogether eleven months. The chapter ends with the topic Business Process...
