Darren Masters and Jacquelyn Long were high school sweethearts who decided to date others to test their true feelings for one another. When Jackie begins dating one of their classmates who also attends the same church she and Darren go to the story heats up. After getting involved in a fight with four men Darren is hospitalized where he learns that Jackie is engaged to the young man shed been seeing. With Darrens mother weds without his knowing anything about it, Darren is so upset he joins the US Air Force. Darren jumps from one woman to another, living a life he knows goes against everything his Christian upbringing taught him. His rebelliousness leads him into more and more trouble and heartache. Mason has penned a good, exciting romance novel that picks up where the first book in The Look of Love series leaves off. A good, fun read that will keep the reader flipping pages. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
