MEN OF THE KINGDOM: CHRYSOSTOM: THE ORATOR (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Men of the Kingdom: Chrysostom: The Orator For one thousand years the walls of Constantinople were the sole guarantee of the safety of European civilization. When Constantine drew his spear-point along the Golden Horn and thence across to the Propontis, he was fixing the cross upon St. Paul s and placing the Bible in American homes. Two miles from the gate of ancient Byzantium his courtiers reminded him that he had already exceeded all reasonable limits. His familiar reply is characteristic, though traditional: I shall go on until the Invisible Guide who marches before me is ready to stop. In justice to Constantine let us admit that he is not authority for these grandiose words. Yet he claims to have laid the foundation of the city in obedience to the commands of God, and a vision or two at such an important juncture would not have been entirely out of his line. There was, however, in his choice of a site for the new city, the inspiration of superb statesmanship, the prescience of a seer.
