Following a series of events, which could have been either life shattering or life-changing, I decided that I was going to be in charge of my destiny. It was at this time that I connected with my Life Coach and Mentor and know without a doubt that this, as well as all of the events leading up to our meeting, were Divinely Inspired. There was an aspiring and unique connection, an immediate sense of calm, of knowing. It was instant, and somehow I was aware of the importance of our meeting. I dove into the water head first and have never looked back! I put my heart and soul into the challenges and homework. I studied and absorbed the information like a sponge. The Key, for me, was that finally something made sense! What I learned most about myself was acknowledging, accepting and blessing my past and my memories, but most importantly living each moment within the presence of the moment. Being present in thought, deed and word. It was about Reclaiming my Gift, about finding my True Self. Through all of this, I re-discovered what I truly wanted. First to write. Second to create a spirit deck to reflect my lessons. The next step, which has been my vision since I can remember, is to build a Spiritual Retreat. I always called it, A Place for People to Come to Celebrate Life! which is the essence of the retreat. This is my story and the hope, love and faith that carried me there. If you love something, let it breathe walk side by side, with kindness, admiration, respect and compassion; enthusiastically cheering one another's journey, lessons and growth, for...
