Good News Publishers, United States, 2014. Pamphlet. Book Condition: New. 137 x 89 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. As a physician for 33 years with a specialty of internal medicine, and a subspecialty in nuclear medicine, I advised my patients to have yearly physical examinations. Many were found to be in excellent health. However, at a later date, I was often called to the hospital emergency room to examine one of my patients with an acute emergency--a possible heart attack, an accident, or some other serious physical problem. Such patients were often fearful and apprehensive, with the thought of death uppermost in their minds. After dealing with their medical emergency, I often heard them admit to being exposed to Christianity by radio or TV, but seldom read the Bible, prayed, or attended church. They were living good moral lives, performing good deeds, and giving to charities, but did not sense the peace of God. Frequently I asked the question, If you were to die unexpectedly, do you know for certain that you would enter heaven? The typical answer was, I think so, or I hope so. However, some patients would answer, Yes, I know so. I have trusted the Lord Jesus Christ and have peace with God. I am prepared for heaven. Do you ever wonder how you can know for certain that you have eternal life, peace with God, and be prepared to enter heaven? All physicians have medical textbooks written by authorities to assist them in making a correct diagnosis and proper treatment. Humanity also has a guidebook, provided by the supreme spiritual authority--God. The Bible shows us how to know God, how to live a meaningful life that pleases him, and how to spend eternity in heaven. The Bible also declares that we all have...
