Reviews

This publication will never be effortless to get started on reading through but very entertaining to read through. It normally is not going to expense too much. I discovered this publication from my dad and i encouraged this book to find out.

1970 CENSUS OF POPULATION AND HOUSING FINAL REPORTS. CENSUS TRACTS VOLUME 177

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 50 pages. Original publisher: Washington, D. C. : The Office, 1997 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)38420362 Subject: Administrative agencies -- United States -- Data processing. Excerpt: . . . B-272843 by employees has been drafted and was undergoing management review and clearance. NOAA reported that two employees were given 14-day suspensions for downloading sexually explicit material, and dismissal proceedings were initiated against one employee for sending threatening e-mail. Officials at the three federal organizations at which we performed additional work told us that the detection of misuse of Internet access is primarily a supervisory responsibility. They told us that other than supervisory monitoring, they do not routinely or systematically monitor employee use of the Internet. Our review of the 28 federal organizations having guidance showed that at least 16 stated that employees use of government-provided Internet resources may be monitored. On April 18, 1997, we requested comments on a draft of this report from Agency Comments OMB the Director of. We also requested comments on excerpts of this report from the Secretary, Department of Commerce; the Secretary, SSA, where we Department of the Interior; and the Acting Commissioner, performed additional work. The Branch Chief of OMBs Office of Information Policy and Technology provided oral comments, which consisted of technical corrections that we incorporated into the report where appropriate. He also stated that the report provides a valuable benchmark on the executive branches Internet activities. The Secretary of Commerce provided written BBS and dial-up comments that said the excerpts of the draft report conformed to input NOAA provided by representatives during our review and that the Department found the excerpts to be very helpful and informative. The Department of the Interiors Acting Director, Office of Information Resources Management provided technical comments,...
