Amber Bryant is a 14 year old high school student, that chronically listed her life in short poems. Starting from the age of 5 until now, this girl tells the harsh reality of her life. She remembers her parents divorce, that caused the loss of her castle of a home, and moving into a worn out trailer home that needs many repairs. Amber s pinning for what was, and for what could have been, has made her a broken person. She knows of the good life her siblings lived from photos, and home movies. Feeling cheated, Amber finds solace in her mythical writings and drawings. Amber has discovered and created a new world that has embarked her on a new and glorious adventure. This is one short poetry book that numerous teenagers can relate to, in this millennium.
