THE POLITICS OF PROFESSIONALISM: A RETRO-PROGRESSIVE PROPOSAL FOR LIBRARIANSHIP (PAPERBACK)

Library Juice Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book presents a retro-progressive proposal for the education of librarians: the removal of library education from the jurisdiction of universities, which in recent decades have become increasingly corporatized, internalizing market-based concepts such as performance metrics and audit culture to the extent that, ideologically speaking, they are indistinguishable from corporations. The author presents a detailed, alternative model for library education, building upon Ralph Waldo Emerson's idea of a librarian as a professor of books.
