There is little doubt that the great amount of attention recently bestowed on dynamos for the purpose of electro-deposition will speedily result in the exclusive use of those machines in places where a considerable and steady flow of work has to be got through. It is stated that the works of every thousand watches absorb in the gilding processes eight to ten pounds worth of the precious metal. As our readers are doubtless aware, the gilding solution is of a highly poisonous nature, and the fumes or vapours arising therefrom are none of the healthiest. To get rid of these, an exhaust-fan is provided to free the room of such impurities. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
