As long as there are people, there will always be a hater in the crowd. Your critic could range from a stranger, to sadly, a relative. He or she may be an unfair supervisor, a competitive coworker, or a jealous acquaintance. Or someone who Like you on social media can throw painful shots. The hater games rip relationships apart and cause conflicts and divisions in families, on the job, and everywhere people congregate. To defeat this heavy weight, La Vita Weaver shares eight powerful steps based on biblical principles. These winning moves will empower you to block distracting blows and aim straight for your goals. Like a champion, when you keep your eyes focused on the prize, you ll become stronger, wiser, more flexible and better than ever. In addition, healthy eating and exercise tips are included to shape your total well-being. This dynamic message contains tips for personal and professional growth. Plus, at the end of each step are activities for individual review or study groups. The bonus inspirational section will...
