Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Richard Adams, now retired, is still a force to be reckoned with. Having served his time as a soldier on the front line, he then joins the Parachute Regiment in the 1980s - an iconic and troubled time in British Military history. When he is assigned to the Falkland Islands he befriends two Gurkhas who teach him their way of fighting. And very quickly, he is transformed into a lethal fighting force. He eventually returns to suburban life with his wife Pauline and daughter Helen. When his grandson, Paul, is born, Richard's world has a whole new meaning. They become constant companions and spend many an afternoon beside the river at Badger's Holt on Dartmoor, where all the local children swarm during sunny days. The pair are never apart. until Pauline insists that she and her husband take a holiday to Spain on their own. But what happens to Paul when Richard is away will send shivers down your spine. The paedophile ring that have been watching Paul for weeks, now have the...
