What followed was a series of fatal errors that set the fire free and doomed the city to a fiery death. - Jim Murphy, The Great Fire It had taken about 40 years for Chicago to grow from a small settlement of about 300 people into a thriving metropolis with a population of 300,000, but in just two days in 1871, much of that progress was burned to the ground. In arguably the most famous fire in American history, a blaze in the southwestern section of Chicago began to burn out of control on the night of October 8, 1871. Thanks to The Chicago Tribune, the fire has been apocryphally credited to a cow kicking over a lantern in Mrs. Catherine O Leary s barn, and though that was not true, the rumor dogged Mrs. O Leary to the grave. Of course, the cause of the fire didn t matter terribly much to the people who lost...
