Carcenet Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The poems in The Sleepwalker at Sea tread a fragile line between dream and wakefulness, memory and loss, presence and longing. Leave a house and it suddenly fills with the unseen ; consult The Book of Clues and discover only ghostly hints of a self you ve left behind. Linked by their restless displacement, pacing haunted spaces, these are poems that question what it means to be in the world and seek answers in lost rooms, missing sketches, disappearing fragments. By turns meditative and playful, romantic and philosophical, The Sleepwalker at Sea strides an invisible path through streets of strangers, in search of ruined altars, buried candles, and the whispering galleries of the dead . Here, deer dissolve / into a tapestry of mist , a butterfly measures / the universe s weight , and the soul sculpts itself in frostlit air .
