

101 Tips for Career Success (Paperback)

By Ray Harrell

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Embarking on the hunt for a job can be a very frustrating, but necessary evil. In this employer s market, job seekers must create for themselves an almost fairy-tale image in order to compete with the hundreds of people often competing for the same job! There are hundreds of books and web sites out there that will give you a few tips on how to present yourself to a potential employer. Most of them are accurate; some of them are severely outdated. This book is designed to put a humorous twist to the otherwise irritating process of looking for a job. Based on combined years of experience reviewing resumes and interviewing candidates, along with information shared by colleagues, you can benefit from this resource full of current trends and increase your chances of landing that perfect job. While this book does not provide any guarantee of a job offer, it includes valuable tips that every job seeker should follow. Some recruiter and hiring manager secrets are exposed to help you get past the roadblocks that may seem to hinder you...
