THE PRELUDES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Fragment from the forward. Poetry is by both form and content a true mirror of the rational-intuitive polarity of our human universe and of the greater human reality. This pervading direction of thought led me to where early experimentation in the control of accident culminated in the sub-collection Loqui situated at the end. Loqui, appears full of intended meaning, i.e.: appears to be written to mean what it says in that way. I sought to write poetry that was suffused with a musical form based upon the beautiful arrangement of precise patterns of sound and rhythm and that used itself as a means to explore unconscious meaning through conscious activity, as a way of emulating the moment of consciousness as it happens, thus . Opening thought, like a flower, fascinated as I was and am by the moment in which meaningless symbols become or [semi-quote from the book GODEL, ESCHER, BACH: an eternal golden braid. Douglas R. Hofstadter.] and thus acquire meaning for both reader and writer alike, whilst also being sometimes a mirror to the world by trying to say some things that need to be said in as universal a way as possible. It is true also that the way sentience makes sense of things is by applying narrative and important to remember however that in poetry, narrative doesn't always look like narrative. The Preludes is more focused upon metrical experimentation, is more modernist in scope whilst keeping its attention upon the subject of spirit in material form and the struggle in a world of events that are beyond our control. It is designed to be a series of six interlinked musical phrases focusing upon the music of language. These...
