By National Park Service

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Federal Recreation Fee Report, 1982: Including Federal and State and Private Sector Recreation Visitation and Fee Data This section of the report is divided into four parts. The first part is a legislative history of the Federal recreation fee program. Part two is a description of the Golden Eagle, Golden Age, and Golden Access Passport programs. Data on the number of passports sold and/or issued and the revenues produced from these programs are presented. Part three is a series of summary tables which contain data on: the number of existing and potential fee management units; the amount of recreation fees collected; the direct and indirect costs to collect fees; campground capacity at existing and potential fee areas; and visitation statistics to fee and non-fee areas. Whenever appropriate, data are provided for the three year period from 1980 to 1982. Part four is a series of detailed exhibits which contain a State by State breakdown of the 1982 fee and visitation data presented in part three. The policy of collecting recreation fees at national parks and other Federal areas began prior to...
