BELMARSH BANG-UP: A NEWBIES GUIDE TO PRISON (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . At the age of 52 Paddy Kane with a previously unblemished record was sentenced to serve in Britain's highest security prison. In a few hours he went from having being a husband, father and grandfather living a suburban lifestyle to a world of daily struggle dominated by major criminals, terrorists and drug barons. At any time over 80,000 people are confined in Britain's penal system and around two million of today's adult population are expected to serve at least one custodial sentence. IT COULD BE YOU!! This book is designed to help people learn the real world of inside prison so if you ever found yourself in the same position, and you'd be amazed how easy it is to be locked up, you could escape with as few scars as possible. Forget what you think you know about prison and what you may have read by career criminals, this book is by somebody just like you who took a wrong path and paid the price. This is what serving time behind the bars of Britain's most secure prison is really like. The games that are played by the Warders to enjoy their small bit of power in the world and some of the games played by the prisoners to make life a bit more durable in a facility which is pretty futile in changing any behaviour of prisoners leaving them normally worse off after their sentence than before. That bit can have some people rubbing their hands together but only until they remember it is their communities these people are let out into again. Unfortunately the ridiculousness of Britain's penal system is laid completely open when you...
