Dudley and Dollys story was inspired by actual events that happened on my rescue farm with a loveable lamb and a silly goat. Dudley and Dollys story starts off describing what its like to live on a farm with a goat named Dudley and a sheep named Dolly, who together always seem to get themselves into trouble. During their escape they visit all the other animals on the farm, which are actual rescues with their original names. Wanting to prove to the farmer, his wife and their two children how helpful they are around the farm, together Dudley and Dolly end up on the farmers new red tractor and end up plowing up the flower garden, the vegetable garden, tearing down the clothes that were hanging on the clothes line, all while pulling behind a flipped over doghouse with the dog still in it! This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
