It was there, beyond that small group of trees. And it was coming this way. I moved slow, hoping to avoid alerting the beast. My left hand curled around my thin curved wooded bow, while the other reached behind and loaded an arrow. I pulled the string back and waited. The small brush rustled again and I felt my nerves tighten. Sweat dripped down the side of my head and I had to resist the urge to wipe it away. Any movement from me now would give away my position. I couldnt...
