Forgotten Books, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 81: May 29, 1919 You will find in the New Testament that there are four separate accounts given by Matthew, Mark, Luke and John; and that they all agree in the essential particulars, while they differ a little in some of the details. They wrote according to their knowledge and understanding of the occurrences that took place. Luke wrote about them to his friend Theophilus. He also wrote to him another statement of what the Apostles of the Lord had been doing, to his knowledge. These men gave the particulars as they understood them; but the fact remains the same, that is that the body of Jesus was gone from the sepulcher and that He appeared afterwards in that body to His disciples. First of all He appeared to Mary in the garden. She saw Him and went weeping to Him, thinking He was the gardener, and said to the Master: Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. And He turned and called her by name. Then she knew that it was Jesus and she sprang towards Him; and He said: Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them I ascend unto my Father and your Father; and to my God, and your God. She obeyed the commandment. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
