By Gcobani Bobo, Elvis Jack

Gcobani Bobo, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Japanese speaking South African rugby-player with a hidden-scandalous past returns to scheme his way to the top, The Rise of the Dagger Will Xolile Dalindyebo s scandalous past in Japan come to haunt his new schemed success in South Africa, and to his team? And what happens when he returns to Japan? Xolile is the main character in former rugby-player Gcobani Bobo and Elvis Jack s new hero novel, The Rise of the Dagger - What Happens in a Rugby Story When Life Interrupts? Bobo played for the Lions, Springboks and the Newcastle Falcons in England. Xolile Dalindyebo comes out of nowhere to play rugby explosively. His history is uncertain but the fans love him. He is small yet very strong, electrifyingly fast with an intelligent sidestep and an instinct for the game. He connives an arrangement with a divorced maverick journalist to construct his public persona, carefully using Twitter to project his image and to protect his past. The book has twists and turns. It has all the behind-the-scenes sports drama the public is often not privy to - sex scandals, race...
