Excerpt from Foreign News on Tobacco: April 2, 1932 The consumption of tobacco products in 15 European countries was per cent less in 1931 than in 1930, according to a recent report from J. B. Hutson, tobacco specialist in Europe for the Foreign Agricultural Service. These figures tend to confirm an estimate released on December 10, 1931, when it was indicated that the consumption of tobacco products in Europe in 1931, would be approximately 10 per cent less than in 1930 (see p.s./t December 10.
