America Star Books, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Joe Peacock graduated college with a Bacheloras of Science in aerospace engineering and with a minor in physics. His first job was with NASA in Houston: a childhood dream fulfilled. He managed the electrical power system (lights and wires) for the International Space Station, but soon found it was not the right direction for him. Joe was involved with the youth group at church, which developed into an interest in teaching. He spent five years teaching high school math and science, as well as coaching various sports. Taking the next step in discovering what God had planned for him was to apply to the seminary. Joe Peacock is attending St. Patrickas Seminary and University in Menlo Park, California, on behalf of the Diocese of Reno, Nevada, where he eventually hopes to serve. His first book of poetry is called For Her Here and has led to a couple of songs. He describes his writing experience as, acoming out in times of prayer. Itas one way lave been able to make sense of my studies in philosophy.a.
