DIARY OF A BEAUTIFUL DISASTER (PAPERBACK)

Kicam Projects, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. I highly recommend Diary of a Beautiful Disaster as a journey through what it means to be a completely, and unflinchingly, beautiful human being. - David Roche, humorist and author, The Church of 80 Sincerity She had just scored a perfect ten on her floor exercise routine, but Kristin Bartzokis stood stoically before the screaming crowd. For Kristin, this moment of perfection was something she always knew she could achieve. She d been raised to live without limitations, and she d adopted a determination to stay strong and unemotional, no matter what. Born with Treacher Collins Syndrome, a facial abnormality, Kristin learned at an early age the importance of strength-strength when confronted with multiple surgeries, strength when confronted with stares and questions, and strength when confronted with the constant knowledge that you will never look, or be, like everyone else. Kristin Bartzokis s life story is one of achievement and inspiration, an example of an unbreakable spirit and unwavering fortitude. No matter what life has thrown at Kristin, she has turned challenges into triumphs and used obstacles as stepping stones. Diary of a Beautiful Disaster empowers readers to embrace their own uniqueness and boldly go forth into the world being exactly who they are. Kristin reminds us that although life can be complicated and messy, it is always, above all, beautiful. Diary of a Beautiful Disaster is a moving memoir, but more than that it is an honest, sincere front-row peek into one woman s ability to persevere, overcome, and find true acceptance. - Erica Mossholder, executive director, Children s Craniofacial Association.
