THE LIBRARIANS OF HARVARD COLLEGE (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from The Librarians of Harvard College During the early years of the College Library each library-keeper or librarian held the office for a short time only, usually while he was preparing to enter the Christian ministry. Although no one librarian, during his short period of service, could exert a very large measure of influence upon the administration of the institution under his charge, the Library for generations kept its position as the most useful and important store-house of knowledge on the continent. It is believed, therefore, that the Harvard graduates who thus shaped its destinies for so many years have claim to grateful remembrance for this service as well as for their honorable labors in after years. Of the sixty men whose lives are recorded here only five - Shapleigh, Cogswell, Pierce, T. W. Harri, and Sibley - can be said to have made librarianship their profession. Of the others twenty-nine, or even half, became clergymen; seven were teachers; six entered the legal and three the medical profession; and the remaining ten followed various pursuits. The average term of office for the whole period is three and a half years; but for the first century (1667-1767) the average was not quite two and one third years. The principle sources for the history of the Library may be here summarized. The earlier history is to be found in the manuscript Records of the Corporation and of the Board of Overseers, which contain frequent notices of the Library and of the appointments of Librarians; lists of books given; codes of laws for its administration, and amendments thereto; and other matters of importance. The Treasurer s books and the books of letters, especially...
