Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Compilation of Laws to Provide a Revenue for the State of Louisiana: Comprising All Laws, and Parts of Laws, in Force at This Date, April, 1897 This volume contains all the laws, and parts of laws, in force at this time, relative to the assessment of property and the collection of taxes, and is arranged with especial reference to the convenience of Assessors and Tax Collectors in the discharge of their respective duties. It is hoped that the great responsibility resting upon these officers will impress them with the necessity of a thorough understanding of the laws by which they are governed. As the Tax Collector's power to enforce the payment of taxes, by sale of the tax debtors property, does not arise until all the formalities of the law have been strictly complied with, care and diligence should be exercised in the full and correct description of property on the tax rolls, and in all subsequent proceedings of notice, advertisement and sale. Upon the intelligent and conscientious performance of the duties of the Assessors, in the legal and equitable valuation of property, for assessment purposes, assisted and supported by the Boards of Reviewers, depends the financial prosperity of the State Government and its ability to provide for the support of the charitable institutions and the public schools, the protection of the lands from devastating floods and the payment of interest on the public debt. Herein will be found (page 128, et seq.) extracts from the decisions of the Supreme Court bearing upon the subjects of assessment and taxation. The acts creating the several Levee Districts of the State and providing for the protection...
