Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Yearly Journal of Trade, 1837-8: A Sketch of the Origin and Progress of Trade, and Miscellaneous Information, Not to Be Found in Any Work Besides Various are the Annals of Politics, Arts, and Sciences; yet of Trade and Manufactures - the foundation of the Wealth of the Country - there is none save that of The Yearly Journal of Trade. A fit medium, therefore, for diffusing knowledge of the general and important character now contemplated, is consequently much wanted. Many are the Fiscal Regulations of which scarcely anything is known in the Commercial World. The wonder, as remarked in the Edinburgh Review, is, not that Merchants should sometimes calculate wrong, but that they should ever calculate right. To obviate this state of things is the design of The Yearly Journal of Trade. The main points in view are, to give an Annual Expose of the State of Trade and Manufactures in general, - To hold, as twere, the mirror up to Commerce, - to show Merchants and others the bearings of each case, that by comparisons they may ascertain...

This book may be worth purchasing. It typically fails to expense excessive. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
