Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I have been writing poetry since the early 90 s and never really took it serious until someone read one and told me I should write a book. This book talks about love I ve felt and love that I lost. It talks about my hopes and dreams. I endured abuse, mental, physical and emotional, at the hands of others and I thank God for giving me the gift of poetry so that I was able to write when I was hurt. The more I was hurt or abused, the more I wrote. Through the writing of these poems, I found myself healing. Before I wasn t able to talk about the abuse to others, but now I can share my story with hopes of helping others. I never told anyone of what I went through until a few years ago. I had something that I wrote about in my book called a Silent Cry that goes unheard by a deafened ear. I had a silent cry. I was afraid to look people in the eyes for fear of them seeing my pain. The closer I got to God, the more I healed and the more I wrote. My book is also dedicated to my late father who passed away a few years ago. I ve always wanted to make my parents proud and until recently I had lost motivation to have my book published. I hope to be able to give back to those that have helped me along the ways, those people that inspired me not to give up. A lot of my poems talk about love. Love I desired to have. Love I thought I had but...
