She had set up the company some twenty years previous. The company sold artificial Christmas trees. Katie went for this venture, because she loved Christmas. One Boxing Day, she had uttered the phrase: I wish it could be Christmas every day. And so it started. Christmas is the season of joy, but not for some. This book is about such people. Dave works at a Christmas tree company and hates his job. Noelle grew up with parents who loved Christmas so much, that they gave her a Christmas-related name. Rebecca had a traumatic experience with a burglar dressed as a Santa Claus one Christmas Eve, and she has disliked Christmas ever since. How will Dave, Noelle, and Rebecca deal with their Christmas-related problems?.
