By MR Shanthi Kumar Vemulapalli

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In education field many organizations do education as business with the students as well as with the teaching staff. But when they do this business they also need to apply some empathy on each of the operational role along with the student. Most of the competent organizations they adopt many standards and guidelines for running successful results by having best practices. Always the educational organization should not concentrate only for the toppers. They also need to concentrate to the low level scoring students to improve and prove them in society and to their parents from their hidden skills extraction. At the same time some of the organizations still they need to accelerate the improvements. In such organizations what kind of simple practices can be followed or adopted to facilitate better environment to accelerate the education performance; through this book I tried to demonstrate. This E-Book has been designed with the study made by the author from different educational institute s issues globally when he worked in different countries including India. And also interviewed many students...
