

Nohow on: Company, Ill Seen Ill Said, and Worstward Ho

By Samuel Beckett, S E Gontarski

Grove Press / Atlantic Monthly Press. Paperback / softback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Nohow on: Company, Ill Seen Ill Said, and Worstward Ho, Samuel Beckett, S E Gontarski, The three pieces that comprise this volume are among the most delicate and disquieting of Samuel Beckett's later prose. Each confined to a single consciousness in a closed space, these stories are a testament to the mind's boundless expanse. In "Company," a man on his back in the dark hears a voice speak to him, describing significant moments from his lifetime, and yet these memories may be merely fables and figments invented for the sake of companionship. "Ill Seen Ill Said" tells of a solitary old woman who paces around a cabin, burdened by existence itself. And "Worstward Ho" explores a world devoid of rationality and purpose, containing the famous directive: "Try again. Fail Again. Fail Better." The quintessential distillation of Beckett's philosophy on human existence and the ultimate example of his minimalist approach to fiction, "Nohow On" is a vital collection, concerned with conception and perception, memory and imagination."
