Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Renewal or Conversion: A Letter to the Rev. T. Collins, Rural Dean, and to the Rev. The Clergy of the Deanery of Broughbridge, on the Necessity of Renewal or Conversion My Reverend Brethren, It may seem to you somewhat strange and presumptuous in one so much your younger, venturing to address his Elders on matters of Religion; and were I to consult my own inclinations, - the inclinations, I mean, of flesh and blood, - these would most assuredly (God is my witness) have persuaded me not to undertake such a task. No doubt, when a deacon thus speaks out publicly to those, who have been entrusted with the cure of souls for many years, an apology may not unreasonably be expected. In the present case, then, the necessities of the time must be my apology, as they have been the apology of others in times past. No other consideration than this could have moved me to this course.
