Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Manual of Receipts: Being a Collection of Formulae and Processes for Artisans, Giving the Composition of Various Alloys, Amalgams, Solders, Bronzes, Lacquers, Varnishes, Cements, Etc.; Also Data for the Preservation and Decoration of Various Metallic Articles Not so very many years ago the publication of a book such as this one would have been an impossibility, as metal workers guarded their secrets with jealous care and would, under no consideration, give out the slightest inkling as to the composition of the various lacquers, alloys, etc., used in the manufacture of various articles. The stride taken by analytical chemistry has changed all this, and recent years have seen publicity thrown on the ingredients of many components absolutely unknown before. In the preparation of this volume I have freely availed myself of the vast store of metal receipts and processes contained in The American Artisan during the nineteen years of its existence. These aforesaid receipts and processes are certainly of special value to sheet metal workers, as they have at one time or another been asked...
