Carpenters Son Publishing, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Hurting lives may oppressively wrestle to see Jesus for Who He really is. Painful experiences and struggles often obscure the reality of God's love, tainting our perception of His true character, thereby creating unnecessary distance. To bridge such a gap, He creatively reveals Himself through allegorical encounters such as, Golden Lessons of the Heart, View from the Valley, and Season of Grief. Through unique messengers, God reaches beyond isolation, bondage, and pain with much truth to tell as Deliverer, Healer, and Restorer of souls. Based on true experiences where heartache had led to self-destruction, PTSD, anorexia, bulimia, depression, and more, analogies using canine lives intertwine with the author's own journey of tracking God's heart and handprint of purpose even through suffering and loss. Life-changing lessons along the way become the bridge which continually leads to seeing Jesus at the center of it all. Dog lovers or not, readers can easily correlate their own life issues in the illustrated truths as we not only learn of His tender, trustworthy heart; but we become changed by His hand. Trust is built, peace is established, and fears are erased as revelations of Jesus sacrificial love replace self-harm and fear of punishment. The same principles apply to any emotional imprisonment that prevents one from experiencing abundant life in Christ. Bible study tools with each chapter facilitate individual growth or small group discussions in guiding seekers to the Healer. For encouragement to keep pressing forward and drawing closer to Jesus, a bridge awaits your own footprints to wholeness, freedom, and everlasting joy!.
