Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Brown Alumni Monthly, Vol. 53: July, 1953 Of course something called football had been known at Brown several decades before. The Rev. James C. Sea grave, 1845, wrote a memorandum shortly before his death in 1913: We had games of foot ball organized in two minutes, engaged in by most of the students residing in the College Halls. When the game was over, every man was ready to take up any work at hand. And Alexander J. Robert, 1849, told Professor Bronson, writing his history of the University for publication in 1914: Football was the only sport engaged in: Sophomores vs. Freshmen. NO ground was appropriated for the game. The rear of Hope College the college fence on the east were utilized as the bounds. No one was ever invited, no one ever came to witness the game.
