

Volume One: The Social Atmosphere: I Am the Grenade? Sweeping the Environment for Love (Paperback)

By D a Hewlett, Clarissa Wilson Pine

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. In these changing times people are confused about relationships, work, and in some cases, the ultimate purpose and meaning of life. As a woman who has spent over 30 years in pursuit of a relationship, as an employee, and as a reader interested in science, history, spiritual questions and animals, I have come to the conclusion that the most important single element effecting everyone s life is the pyramid hierarchy, which all are first introduced to at school as the A, B, C, D, and F grading system. I have written a book explaining how the hierarchy translates into hierarchical networks and the impact this system of ranking people has on everyday life creating overpopulation concerns while simultaneously stunting emotional growth. I believe the additional confusing influences of globalization and the economic crisis make this book timely and helpful, aiding the average person s navigation through the murky waters of present day uncertainty to keep a positive mental outlook on life and love. Personal experiences are presented at points where I feel a demonstrating example will be helpful for...
