PUBLIC ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING?OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER & AUDITOR GENERAL OF INDIA

Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 2002. N.A. Book Condition: New. Xvi+140pp Keeping in view that in an independent India, the state had to perform various welfare functions and take the country forward towards industrial development and economic prosperity where the executive would be required to expend enormous funds, the constitution makers did a woman service to their countrymen by providing an institution of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India. They accorded him a place of prominence and honour in the...
