

The Ten Demandments: How to Improve Employment Services for People with Disability (Paperback)

By Martin Wren

Employment First, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Ten Demandments throws down the challenge to all people associated with employment for people with a disability to lift our game. Currently, job seekers with a disability are not being well served by structures, processes, employment services or employers, resulting in what psychologist and disability activist Wolfy Wolfensberger referred to as the wound of a wasted life . As CEO of one of the most effective disability employment services in Australia, the job seekers I come across are keen and able to work. They just need to develop workplace skills, confidence and some guidance in the right vocational direction. The right to work is a basic human right that is largely denied this huge section of the world s population. The Ten Demandments outlines ten main steps to take for the industry, governments, individuals and their carers to ensure improved quality of service. The demandments aspect is not tongue in cheek. We must demand better of our governments, ourselves and each other. Currently a lot of people are making a lot of money from the behind the faCade of Disability Employment Services. I...
