Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Address I understand, and I beg this audience to understand, that I am here to-day, not because I have any place among the orators, or am able to do anything except to speak right on and tell you that which you yourselves do know ; but because the noblest heritage I shall hand down to my children is the fact that Stonewall Jackson condescended to hold and to treat me as his friend. I know, and you know, that as long as valor and virtue are honored among men, as long as greatness of mind and grandeur of soul excite our admiration; as long as Virginia parents desire noble examples to set before their sons, and as long as there dwells in the souls of Virginia boys that fire of native nobleness which can be kindled by tales of heroic endeavor, so long will Virginia men and women be ready to hear of the words and the deeds of Virginia s heroic sons, and therefore ready and glad to hear how valorous and how virtuous, how great and how grand in every thought and action was the Virginian of whom I speak to-day - to know in what awesome Titanic mould was cast that quiet professor who once did his duty here; that silent stranger whom no man knew until the fire of God fell upon him in the battlefield, as it did upon Arthur - the fire by which Sir Launcelot knew him for his king, - the fire that like the live coal from off the altar touched the lips of Jackson and brought from them that kingly voice which the eagle of...
