The plan has proven practical as well as popular, and there has been talk of adopting it in other counties. In Van Wert, the Brumback Free Library has been dedicated and opened to all the citizens of the county. The building, a model structure for the purpose, is -the gift of the late J. S. Brumback. A tax is levied on the county for its support. The library has been opened only since January first and is now supplying books to all parts of the county. An interesting article-in the May Forum describes the progress of the work. The writer says: The method adopted by the Brumback Library to bring its books to all parts of Van Wert county is easily explained. The library itself--which represents a value of $50,000, receives, an annual income of fully $6,500 and has a stack-room capacity, when all available room shall be used, of 100,000 volumes--is located in the city of Van Wert, the county seat of Van Wert county. Fortunately, this city is located in the center of the county, which contains in round numbers 275,000 acres and has a population of 35,000. Besides the central library there are ten branch libraries, which are so situated that every resident of the county is within easy access of the library itself or one of its branches. The ten branches have a unique feature in the form of what may be called a traveling library system, and are also...
