

The Wool Situation: January, 1937 (Classic Reprint) (Hardback)

By United States Department of Agriculture

FBC LTD, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Wool Situation: January, 1937 Consumption of wool by the domestic wool manufacturing industry increased sharply in November after declining in September and October. The rate of consumption in November was greater than in any previous month of 1936 except February. The weekly average consumption of apparel wool by United States mills in November was pounds, scoured basis, compared with pounds in October and pounds in November 1935. Consumption of apparel wool from January to November of this year totaled pounds compared with pounds in the same months of last year and an average of pounds for those months in the 5 years 1930-34. Consumption figures for the entire year 1936, when available. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated...

READ ONLINE
[9.11 MB]

Reviews

Comprehensive guide for pdf fanatics. It is filled with knowledge and wisdom It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Valentin Thompson

It is an amazing publication which i actually have at any time go through. It really is written in easy words and phrases rather than hard to understand. Its been developed in an extremely easy way which is merely following i finished reading through this pdf in which actually changed me, affect the way i think.

-- Garry Lind