Now in its 21th year, the Rodeo Drive Concours d'Elegance has been listed by Frommers as 300 Unmissable Events in the World. On what is often said to be the worlds most fashionable avenue, this years event celebrated two centenaries, 100 years of the city of Beverly Hills and the 100th birthday of Maserati, the events 2014 honored marque. In addition to an extensive display of the current Maserati range, including the recently announced GranTurismo MC Centennial Edition, there were three significant, classic postwar Maseratis on display on Rodeo Drive. In celebrating 100 years of horse power, this years concours showcased cars owned by celebrity residents such as Fred...
