Revival Waves of Glory Ministries, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book reveals what heaven expects from the church. It reveals what Jesus meant by I will build my church. It is not a critique but a standard of spiritual measurement and divine alignment as to the definition of a true church. The true church (The Ekklesia) is not a denominational gathering of any kind, whether orthodox, charismatic or pentecostal. The true church is one, which has placed primacy on building the dispensational temple (the man) only according to God s pattern. This book will be a great eye opener for you. You will no longer strive in the flesh any more after going through this book. The issue of competition, comparison, sense of inferiority and superiority complex, which are some of the distraction and strategies of the enemy, will be exposed. Your work and ministry with God will never remain the same. You can t read this book and still retain your old mentality and operating system. Whatever you are building for the Lord from now on shall be to the Lord s glory and according to his specifications. Personal agenda will be given up. Deeper truths and insights are made available inside this book.
