UNCIVILIZED SOCIAL WORKER: A MOTHER'S STORY (PAPERBACK)

iUniverse, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. When Eliza Eidler became pregnant with her son, she could never have imagined she would be embroiled in a ten-year battle to protect him from a hostile father and a rogue social worker in the United States. Only a few years later, her daughter would become the target of an organized government welfare hoax in Canada. In Uncivilized Social Worker, she tells how she and her family fell victim to falsified child-welfare concerns and how the threat that undermined their safety and happiness was closer to home than she could ever imagine. Determined to fight for her son, Eidler narrates enduring the tyranny of a rogue social worker in the United States and then, with all odds stacked against her, takes on an organized child-welfare hoax perpetrated by Canadian social services in the fight to save her daughter from an illegitimate adoption and illegal court proceedings. Uncivilized Social Worker is a powerful, true story of a mother's struggles to avoid losing her children. Follow Eidler, a private citizen, as she unwittingly uncovers child-welfare fraud and government secrecy in her first book of the three-part series.
