Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This third volume of Tim Stevenson s work includes prizewinning stories that have been collected here for the first time from the National Flash-Fiction Day anthologies and elsewhere, and the first collection of his 100 character centipieces . -Tim is not afraid to document the extremes and complexities of both the familiar and the strange: the macro details of people, places, and events put under the microscope for careful scrutiny. He is a master of scene-setting and also engaging, darkly humorous, and lyrical. These stories turn up the volume in the world of flash-fiction.- - Jane Roberts. Co-founder and editor at Literary Salmon. Within these pages you will discover, amongst other things, why you should never believe everything you see on TV, why there aren t as many tea shops around as there should be, what squirrels do in the night, and the real story behind the little black dress.
